

SEEKING INFORMATION

UNKNOWN SUSPECTS

Attempted Armored Car Robbery
Washington, D.C.
April 19, 2017

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information that leads to the identification, arrest, and conviction of these individuals.

REMARKS

Both suspects were described as Black males wearing masks. The first suspect was approximately 6'0", and was wearing a tan sweater and dark clothing. The second suspect was approximately 5'10", and was wearing a gray sweater and dark clothing.

CAUTION

On Wednesday, April 19, 2017, at approximately 11:47 a.m., 2 unknown armed males attempted to rob an armored car located at 5429 5th Street NW in Washington, D.C. The suspects approached the armored car armed with assault rifles, forced the car driver to the ground, and took an empty money bag. The suspects then fled in a tinted Dodge Avenger and headed eastbound on the 400 block of Kennedy Street NW.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS

The FBI/Metropolitan Police Department Violent Crimes Task Force is investigating this robbery and requests that anyone with information call the Washington, D.C. Office of the FBI at 202-278-2000 or MPD's tip line at 202-727-9099. Additionally, anonymous information may be submitted to the police department's TEXT TIP LINE by text messaging 50411. You may also contact your local FBI office, or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.

Field Office: Washington D.C.